New York.

Dear Mr. Hyde:-

Your payment of dues for this year entitles you to enrollment as a Fellow for life through the provision in our By-Laws:

"Any Fellow of the Society who has, for a period of twenty consecutive years, regularly paid all dues, or who shall pay the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars, may, by resolution of Council, be relieved from further dues."

At the last meeting of the Council held January 6th, this condition was noted, and you are therefore exempt from the payment of further dues as a Fellow of this Society.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.

Dear Mr. Hyde:

Thank you for your note calling attention to our error in having sent you a bill for dues for 1920. Through an oversight, we failed to note your having qualified as a Life Member during the past year. I greatly regret having overlooked this, and trust you will pardon the mistake.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.
